

UEE Seminar Series

Hosted by School of Urban & Environmental Engineering

Economic Issues in Global Climate Change : What and How to Assess?

Speaker : Prof. Park, Jiyoung

Dep. of Urban and Regional Planning, Univ. of Buffalo

This presentation addresses various issues in economic assessment associated with air pollution and public health stemming from climate change and land use/cover change.

Especially, this presentation introduces various methodological challenges and resolutions needed for economic assessment at both macro- and micro-levels.